

San Carlos Resident Appointed To Women's Foundation Board

Published 07/01/2011 - 8:00 a.m. PDT

(Mission Times Courier, San Diego, CA) - Ashley McElravy has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the San Diego Women's Foundation.

The San Carlos resident has been a member of the Foundation for three years and has been active in the Marketing, Membership, and Long Range Planning committees. She currently chairs the planning committee related to San Diego Women's Foundation's signature Annual Grant's Celebration.

In addition to her role in business development and marketing at Gafcon Inc., a women-owned construction management and consulting firm with a long history of support for San Diego nonprofit organizations, Ashley is an avid community volunteer and serves on the board for the Urban Land Institute Young Leaders.

Ashley is a member of the Society of Marketing Professionals. She holds a bachelor's degree in Psychology from UCLA.

