

Arts Center receives grant

The California Center for the Arts, Escondido received a $25,000 grant from The San Diego Women's Foundation for its, "My Story: Literacy through the Arts," program. The program offers learning opportunities to local schools with no other arts curriculum, by incorporating art, journaling, story-telling and drama into traditional classroom lessons. The foundation is nearly past the $2 million mark in donations to 58 nonprofit programs since its founding. Visit sdwomensfoundation.org or artcenter.org.
